

Consent for Use of Images & Recorded Materials - Events

The planning and delivery of the North East Link Project (Project) is being overseen by the Victorian Government's North East Link Authority (NELA). NELA produces publications and runs public events from time to time for the purposes of:

- familiarising the public with the role and structure of NELA;
- informing the community and stakeholders about the Project; and
- collecting feedback about the Project from community members and stakeholders.

NELA produces and distributes promotional material through such media as:

- external publications such as reports, newspapers and magazines;
- departmental publications such as Annual Reports, posters, brochures, newsletters, booklets and displays;
- television and radio segments or advertisements; and
- intranet and Internet sites and official social media platforms such as YouTube, Twitter and Facebook.

NELA may wish to use your photograph, video image, audio, and/or written work (Images & Recorded Materials) to promote its activities (and those of related Victorian Government Departments), including those outlined above. No commercial use will be made of your Images & Recorded Materials by NELA or the Victorian Government.

NELA respects your privacy and would like your consent to use your Images & Recorded Materials for the purposes described above. If you consent, this would be for an ongoing basis until you withdraw your consent in writing.

If you do not consent to NELA taking and using your Image & Recorded Materials, please see a NELA staff member present at today's event or alternatively contact NELA as set out below.

NELA is committed to meeting its obligations under the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (Vic), including the security of your personal information.

NELA's privacy policy is available at www.northeastlink.vic.gov.au/privacy and contains information about how to access or correct your personal information and how you may complain about a breach of your privacy.

You can access your Images & Recorded Materials and any other personal information held about you by contacting NELA at:
